A. The consideration of Brother Bender's case

1. Reading of the written confession
2. Hearing of the oral confession and the application to be received as member
3. Taking the counsel of the church
 - (a) Opportunity for all to stand who are willing to forgive and receive Brother B. without any private counsel.
 - (b) Opportunity for all to stand who wish to have some private counsel. This does not mean that those desiring private counsel are unwilling to receive him, but that they simply desire some further discussion.

4. Receiving Bro. B. as a member,

B. Consideration of the case of Ruth

(use statement drawn up yesterday)
